The original copy of the above-mentioned documents along with their two set of self-attested photocopies must be carried during the physical reporting to the Institute.

Note: Gap Certificate and Anti Ragging Affidavit are NOT required
UGC has revised the procedure for students to submit the Anti Ragging undertaking. Now the procedure is completely online and students are not required to submit any hard/ printed affidavit in the Institute. This procedure has been changed with the view to conserve paper and hence to protect our environment and to reduce compliance burden of its stakeholders. To complete the anti-ragging undertaking/ affidavit modalities flawlessly, a session would be arranged. Relevant details (time slot and venue) in this regard would be informed during the inaugural session.

Note: If the original certificates are not in English/ Hindi, English / Hindi version/ translation of such certificates, duly certified by the Principal/ Director or other competent authority of the graduating Institute, will be required during the document verification process.
